Comet Group Receives 2018 Publisher's Choice Award for Test Services at Lab One

Flamatt, Switzerland – October 2018 – Comet Group has been recognized with a 2018 Publisher's Choice Award from Global SMT & Packaging magazine for its new Lab One technology and applications center in Silicon Valley. The award was presented to the company on Tuesday, October 16, 2018 in ceremony during SMTA International.

Lab One brings together RF Power, X-ray and CT applications, and ebeam technologies, along with a broad spectrum of expertise under one roof. This is a place dedicated exclusively to helping customers develop and test new applications and processes such as printed and flexible electronics

With the addition of Lab One, Comet Group is making further progress in the areas of innovation and collaboration. For example, the plasma chambers at Lab One allow customers to increase their knowledge about plasma behavior and as a result, develop better performing products in the semiconductor industry.

The Global Technology Awards program began in 2005. Its charter is to celebrate product excellence in electronics surface mount assembly, with the winners chosen by a distinguished panel of industry experts.
