Nordson SELECT Appoints Envoy as Brazilian Distributor for Entire Selective Soldering Product Line

Envoy provides customers throughout Brazil with equipment and materials selection services, process expertise and technical support

Liberty Lake, WA, USA – 7 August 2018 – Nordson SELECT, a Nordson company (NASDAQ: NDSN), is pleased to announce the appointment of Envoy Imp. Com. e Rep Ltda. as a distributor for the entire Nordson SELECT product portfolio throughout Brazil. With offices in San Paulo and Manaus, Envoy serves the strategic areas for PCB assembly and is a top tier supplier to the Brazilian market.

Adam Streeter, Mexico, Central America and South America Sales/Service Manager for Nordson SELECT stated, “We are delighted to have Envoy as members of our sales organization with their vast sales and technical support team.” Streeter added, “In addition, Edwin Costa and the entire Envoy team brings to the table their extensive in-depth background in electronics materials and assembly chemicals, technical process knowledge and electronic assembly solutions.”

Founded in 1993, Envoy focuses on the growing electronics assembly segment and works with high technology assembly equipment, soldering consumables and cleaning solution providers. Envoy services include representation, importation, distribution, partnership and technical consulting. They are the exclusive representatives of companies like Nordson SELECT, Mycronic, Heller, Indium, Kyzen and KIC. In addition, Envoy has active participation in electronics trade shows and SMTA workshops in Brazil.
