ZESTRON Academy to Host FREE "Cleaning Before Conformal Coating" Webinar

Manassas, VA – September 4, 2019 ZESTRON, the global leading provider of high precision cleaning products, services, and training solutions to the electronics manufacturing and semiconductor industries, is pleased to announce that it will host "Cleaning Before Conformal Coating" on Thursday September 26th, from 1:30 PM to 2:30 PM EDT. This is the seventh installment of the 2019 ZESTRON Academy Cleaning Webinar Series. Our presenter will be electronics cleaning expert, Kalyan Nukala, M.S.Ch.E, Application Technology Engineer.

Webinar Abstract:

Do you conformally coat your electronic assemblies? If so, cleaning prior to conformal coating is a must to ensure that your products perform as expected over the long-term. This ZESTRON Academy webinar examines how coating over residues can result in product failures and offers cleaning process recommendations to prevent it from happening.
