CE3S Announces Strategic Partnership with SCS to Enhance ESD Process Control Solutions

HARRISBURG, PA — May 2024 — Cumberland Electronics Strategic Supply Solutions (CE3S), your strategic sourcing, professional solutions and distribution partner, proudly announces its new partnership with SCS (Static Control Solutions), a Division of Desco Industries. As a Desco focused distributor, this strategic collaboration with SCS enhances CE3S' ability to deliver expanded ESD process control solutions to its partners.

CE3S and SCS are joining forces to offer superior-quality ESD process control solutions to manufacturers. Through this partnership, CE3S will provide its partners with access to a wide range of cutting-edge static control products from SCS, ensuring enhanced performance and reliability in their manufacturing processes.

"CE3S is excited to announce our partnership with SCS, a well-known leader in static control solutions," said Jeremy Wagner, President at CE3S. "This collaboration enables us to empower our customers to achieve superior ESD process control and optimize their manufacturing operations."

Under the agreement, CE3S will offer SCS products, including the SCS Power Relay for WS Aware Monitors, WS Aware Dual-Wire Monitors and the Static Management Program (SMP) Software. Each product offers advanced capabilities designed to enhance ESD process control, ensuring optimal performance and reliability in manufacturing environments.
