25 Years of Craft, Character, and Team Spirit: ICTC Honors Angela Williams

Brooksville, FL – February 2026 – Interconnect Cable Technologies Corporation (ICTC), a global contract manufacturer, is proud to recognize Angela Williams as she celebrates 25 years with the company in 2026, marking a career defined by skill, consistency, and a steady influence that extends well beyond her own workstation.

Angela is a valued member of ICTC's CMS Production team, where she is known for being reliable, detail-oriented, and deeply knowledgeable in her work. Over the years, she has become someone others naturally turn to for guidance—whether that means sharing best practices, helping troubleshoot issues, or setting the tone for how work gets done. Angela leads by example every day, helping maintain focus, quality, and teamwork on the production floor. Along with her technical strengths, she's also known for her sense of humor and ability to keep morale high, even during demanding production schedules.

"Angela represents the kind of experience and attitude that makes ICTC strong," said Rob Ogilbee, CFO of ICTC USA. "She takes pride in her work, supports her team, and brings positivity to everything she does. Those qualities matter, especially in an environment where quality and teamwork go hand in hand."

Founded in 1988 and headquartered in Brooksville, Florida, ICTC provides high-reliability electronic manufacturing solutions including cable and wire harness assemblies, PCB assemblies, and turnkey box builds. The company focuses on understanding customer expectations and delivering dependable results through clear communication, disciplined processes, and a workforce built on long-term experience. ICTC's quality systems are certified to AS9100D, ISO 9001:2015, and ISO 13485:2016, supporting customers across aerospace, defense, medical, industrial, and transportation markets.

ICTC is proud to celebrate Angela Williams' 25-year milestone and thanks her for the expertise, professionalism, and energy she brings to the organization every day.
