CE3S Expands Leadership with Promotion of Josh Funk to Vice President of Sales

HARRISBURG, PA — August 2026 — Cumberland Electronics Strategic Supply Solutions (CE3S), your strategic sourcing, professional solutions and distribution partner, has promoted Josh Funk to Vice President of Sales, recognizing his leadership and expanding his responsibilities in support of the company's continued sales growth and long-term market expansion.

As Vice President of Sales, Funk will work closely with CE3S leadership and the company's customers to identify new opportunities, strengthen existing relationships and support sustainable business growth. His responsibilities will include helping shape the company's sales organization, developing the sales team and pursuing opportunities that align with CE3S's long-term strategic objectives.

"Josh has demonstrated a strong commitment to our customers and a clear understanding of the opportunities ahead for CE3S," said Jeremy Wagner, President, CE3S. "His experience, customer-focused approach and leadership will be valuable as we continue strengthening our sales organization and expanding our presence in the market."

In his new role, Funk will lead the CE3S sales team and play a key role in developing and executing the company's overall sales growth strategy. He will continue working closely with customers while taking on additional responsibilities related to sales structure, team development, new business opportunities and strategic market expansion.

Funk's continued customer engagement will also remain an important component of his role, enabling him to maintain a direct understanding of customer requirements and market needs while helping translate those insights into new business opportunities and growth strategies.

The promotion reflects CE3S's continued investment in its sales organization and its commitment to building the resources and leadership necessary to support customers and capitalize on emerging opportunities across the electronics supply chain.
